Heritage & Grandeur Across Great Britain

London, York, Edinburgh | 12 nights / 13 days

This thoughtfully crafted itinerary serves as a refined starting point, with every element open to personalization. From pacing and private experiences to exclusive access and meaningful moments, each detail can be tailored to reflect your preferences - creating a journey that feels distinctly your own.

HOME / LONDON

Day 1 | Arrive in London with dedicated meet-and-greet assistance, ensuring a seamless passage through the airport and into a private transfer. Settle into your centrally located hotel, moments from iconic landmarks and refined shopping, before an evening immersed in the energy of the theatres in the West End.

Recommended Stays

Sofitel London St James Hotel

The Bloomsbury

The Chancery Rosewood

LONDON

Day 2 | Set out with a private guide to uncover the character of your neighborhood, from storied streets to hidden gems like Neal's Yard or Shepherd Market. Continue through Clerkenwell and Farringdon, exploring historic pubs rich with lore. Conclude with a classic pie and pint, a warm taste of British culture.

LONDON

Day 3 | Step inside royal tradition at Windsor Castle, guided by an expert, where centuries of ceremony and history unfold. Back in the East End, streets of Spitalfields and Shoreditch reveal layered cultures and bold flavors. Along the way, be entranced with tastes of iconic bites shaped by generations of immigrants, from bagels to fish ‘n’ chips.

LONDON

Day 4 | Spend a personally guided day in the Cotswolds, where rolling countryside and honey-stone villages create a distinctly English backdrop. Visit Burford and Woodstock, pause for a relaxed pub lunch, then continue to Stow-on-the-Wold and Bourton-on-the-Water, each offering its own quiet charm and character.

LONDON

Day 5 | Drift along the Thames on a private boat, where London’s skyline gives way to quieter, storied corners. Beneath the city, the Churchill War Rooms reveal the tension and resolve of wartime Britain, from the preserved map room to Churchill’s private quarters and hidden communications hub.

LONDON / YORK

Day 6 | Travel north in a first-class rail carriage, where attentive service and a relaxed pace set the tone for the journey. On arrival, a private transfer brings you to your centrally located hotel within a landmark former railway building. Spend the afternoon exploring York’s remarkably preserved medieval streets, where ancient walls, timber-framed buildings, and Gothic architecture reflect centuries of layered history.

Recommended Stays

The Grand, York

YORK

Day 7 | Explore York alongside a knowledgeable local expert, tracing its layered history through ancient city walls, Roman remains, and landmark sites. Visit York Minster with included admission, stroll the Shambles, and uncover hidden details woven through the city's enduring streets.

YORK / EDINBURGH

Day 8 | Begin the morning exploring York's enduring chocolate legacy, from artisan creations to hands-on experiences, before wandering the Shambles, where medieval architecture and lively shops line its narrow, cobbled street. Later, continue north in a first-class rail carriage to Edinburgh, where a seamless private transfer awaits to your luxury hotel.

Recommended Stays

Kimpton Edinburgh Charlotte Square

The Caledonian Edinburgh, Curio Collection by Hilton

The Edinburgh Grand, a Luxury Collection Hotel, Edinburgh

EDINBURGH

Day 9 | Wander Edinburgh's Old Town with a private guide, where centuries of history unfold along the Royal Mile and through hidden wynds and courtyards. From Calton Hill's sweeping views to St Giles Cathedral and Holyroodhouse, each landmark reveals a layered past, ending within the storied walls of Edinburgh Castle.

EDINBURGH / ST. ANDREWS

Day 10 | Spend the day in St Andrews, where coastal scenery and storied landmarks define its enduring appeal. Visit the Old Course, widely regarded as the Home of Golf, with time to walk its iconic fairways or pause on the Swilcan Bridge. Continue to the cathedral ruins, castle, and historic university, each offering a deeper connection to the town's remarkable heritage.

EDINBURGH

Day 11 | Venture into the Scottish Highlands in expert hands, where lochs, wooded glens, and open landscapes create a striking backdrop. Visit Stirling Castle, central to Scotland's defining moments, then continue through the Trossachs and Loch Lomond National Park, where scenic beauty and quiet landscapes define the day.

EDINBURGH

Day 12 | Explore contemporary Scottish distilling at Holyrood Distillery, where an immersive visit offers insight into both whisky and gin production. Later, step into the city's lively pub culture with a curated experience through historic taverns, sampling independent whiskies and local beers while uncovering the traditions behind them.

EDINBURGH / HOME

Day 13 | Begin with a relaxed Scottish breakfast before a private transfer to the airport. Expedited assistance ensures a seamless path through check-in, security, and departures, allowing for a smooth transition to your first-class journey home.

More Activities

A Stylish Night in West End

Layers of London, Past & Present

Quintessential Cotswolds Landscapes

Royal Heritage & Evening Intrigue

Medieval York & Living History

York's Sweet Heritage & Northbound

Lochs, Legends & Storied Lands

Coastal Heritage & Sporting Legacy

A Taste of Edinburgh's Spirit